Format: 25-min, free challenge, ABSP rules, CSW15.
Prizes: Depending on entry numbers, 2 prizes + ratings prize in each division
Cost: £14 ABSP members, £16 non-members*
Venue: Church of St. Mark, St. Mark's Rise, Dalston, London E8 2LJ

This is one of very few tournaments to be held in Inner London, and hopefully the first of a long series. St. Mark's is a historic church in the heart of Dalston, overlooking the unique and wonderful Ridley Road market. The hall is well-equipped, warm, and clean, with a convenient kitchen. Maximum attendees 40, strictly limited, so register early! Overground stations Dalston Kingsland or Dalston Junction, or Hackney Downs for a slightly longer walk. Plentiful buses to Dalston from everywhere. Parking in church grounds for about 10 cars, but additional parking is available on local streets on purchase of a £1 one-day voucher. I'd advise prompt arrival to ensure a space - the market gets very busy on a Saturday. If you can offer someone local to you a lift, so much the better.

Unlimited tea, coffee, and biscuits and some other goodies included in the price. Lunch not provided (though this can be done for subsequent tournaments at a reasonable cost, depending on the popularity of the idea). Please bring boards and clocks for general use.

Entry forms please to Victoria Kingham, 15 Heyworth Road, London E5 8DR or just email details to vkingham@yahoo.co.uk. Payment may be made by cheque or (preferably) bank transfer to VK scrabble, Barclays 20-81-21 30929387, with your name as reference. Phone 07517 240212 any time - if I'm not available leave a message. I'm happy to hear from you, especially if you are new to the Scrabble tournament scene. Tournament Director on the day will be redoubtable James Burley.
